Awakening Humanity to its Spiritual Magnificence By Way of Sacred Community

PLAYFULLNESS: Full of fun & high spirits; being able to explore and to do things, for the sheer delight of doing them. It means relaxing, being spontaneous, and allowing a situation to carry you where it will. When we have a playful attitude, learning and discovery are fun, and even hard work can fly by.

Greetings Dear Ones,

A Summer Invitation: Play the game of life with fun, moving lightly and freely. Engage in re-creation that restores vitality and zest for living. Cultivate playfulness and stay young, inviting the Universe to enjoy experiencing Life through you! If not now...when???

Namaste,

Reverend Tanya Wyldflower

News from Rebecca:

- ♥Children created and shared a wonderful Sunday celebration in May on Mother's Day. Thank you Jaren, Sakota, Zora, Sage, and Sevada for helping to plan the celebration and to Aleah, Nora, Elija, Beyaluh, Mirabai, Justin and Ociel who did the Celebration.
- ♥Our next few months of Sunday Celebrations will be based on the spiritual practices curriculum and appreciation and understanding of the diversity of various world cultures.
- ♥If anyone would like to offer a ride to children whose parents are unable to attend, please contact Rebecca at 961-6190.

JULY CHARITABLE DONATION RECIPIENT: Mendocino Area Parks Association

MAPA, a non-profit, has scheduled more than 150 educational programs this summer in the local State Parks in Mendocino County. MAPA funds 1 Interpretive District-wide Coordinator and 3 Seasonal Interpreters for Jr. Rangers, Campfire programs and Nature Hikes at MacKerricher, Russian Gulch/Van Damme and Hendy Woods State Parks, plus Living History programs and 'Wild Nites' at the Ford House in Mendocino. MAPA supports six visitor centers and funds educational equipment, displays and interpretive panels. MAPA is also working hard to keep open the 8 state parks in our County slated for closure.
